Many hands are needed. Sign up in the Social Hall to help. Bring work gloves, shovels, rakes, and wheelbarrows, if you have them. Lunch will be provided. Date: Saturday, May 7, 8:30 am to noon. Rain date is May 21.

The Liturgy Q&A Has Been Rescheduled for Saturday, May 14

Do you ever wonder why the priest kisses the altar at the beginning of the Mass?

Or why do we use incense at certain times and not at others?

What do the colors of green, white, rose or purple mean?

On Saturday, May 14 we will have a Question and Answer session about the Liturgy of the Mass. Anyone is welcome to attend. The liturgy commission would like all those who currently serve in any way to attend, even those behind the scenes such as altar cleaners and those who wash the altar linens. Please register online on our website. When you register, please submit any questions you have about why we do what we do in the liturgy. The more we understand about the Mass, the more meaningful it will be when we participate and worship together. Refreshments and Registration is at 10 am and the program is at 11 am. See website for registration link. If you registered for the previous, canceled session, please do register again, but you won't need to submit any questions, we have your original questions.

St. Barnabas Church offers prayers and condolences to Richard and Peggy Post, upon the loss of their son, Richard, who died April 26, 2022. The funeral Mass will be Friday, May 6 at 10:30 here at the church, followed by a reception.

GOD'S OVERFLOWING KINDNESS

The superabundance of God's kindness ties all of today's readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today's Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—"everything in the universe"—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

New video showcases history of Catholic faith in our diocese

From our earliest days of circuit-riding priests to our roots in the Carolina Gold Rush, the Diocese of Charlotte stands on the shoulders of countless missionary priests, consecrated religious, and faithful lay men and women who built up the Church in western North Carolina. Thanks to their sacrifices, hard work and devotion, our diocese was born and has flourished over these past 50 years. Watch a special video showcasing that history:
