Fatima Gems is produced by Array of Hope Films, hosted by author, TV Host and renowned Fatima historian, and co-founder of the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal, Father Andrew Apostoli, C.F.R.

This bill prohibits abortion after 15 weeks. It "protects babies in the womb who have beating hearts, who can move, who can taste, who can see, and who can feel pain." Florida's Catholic bishops praised Gov. DeSantis for his commitment to defend unborn children and their mothers."

St. Vincent de Paul Society Honors Emory Head

The end of December, 2017 was an important time in the history of our St. Vincent de Paul Society history. We received a very nice donation from Vincentian Emory Head, who had been active in our group for many years. Emory served as secretary for our Council during his years of service. He also made many home visits with other Vincen-tians. A daily Mass attendee, Emory lived a life of service, not only to St. Vincent de Paul, but also his family. He took care of his aging sister. After her death, his nieces and nephews in Atlanta persuaded to be move closer to them so that they could care for him, if necessary.

Emory's service to St. Vincent de Paul was exemplary, and we also recall the people who served with the same pas-sion and commitment as Emory. In the early days Mary Forrest dedicated her time to our Pantry, and Bea Adkins and Iva Capps also helped organize the Pantry. Back then, the Pantry was not the organized room that it is now, and we certainly did not have the intake and outflow of food and goods that we currently have. Emory's donation enabled us to modernize the Pantry with new wire shelves.

Fred and his many helpers assembled them, and this change energized our group to continue finding ways to streamline our operation and reach a broader range of clients in need of help.

Your donations are the underpinning of our work. We are your hands and feet, and we use your generous gifts to procure fresh food, meat, produce, and necessary dry goods for our community. We are very grateful for your continued support.

We will be placing a plaque honoring Emory on the door of our Pantry. His work, dedication, and financial gift are so very much appreciated, as is the effort of our current members, whose commitment and hard work build on the foundation established by people like Bea, Iva, and Mary.

A FORETASTE OF PARADISE

Throughout Easter Time, the Church rejoices with Jesus, risen from the dead. Our readings on this Fourth Sunday of Easter celebrate our instinct to come together in joy, worshiping in church. While private prayer nourishes our individual relationship with the Lord, community prayer is a foretaste of paradise. The book of Revelation depicts a "great multitude" worshiping God "day and night in his temple." Our churches on Easter Sunday often reflect this happy multitude, filling the pews to bursting. Four Sundays into the festive season, we are encouraged to keep praising God together. In the Acts of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas demonstrate their instinct to worship with their faith community each Sabbath, dutifully taking their seats in the synagogue. In the Gospel, Jesus calls us his sheep and reminds us why coming together as a flock is so important: uniting in community, we imitate the unity of God.
