Final Faith Formation and SoE Youth Ministry for 2021-2022!

Thank you all for a wonderful year! Speaking for the youth team and all the catechists who have expressed similar sentiments to me, it has been a huge blessing to share the Faith in person this year and see how the children and teens have grown in their relationship with Jesus and each other. Learning in person about our Faith and having the ability to form friendships with other Catholics in person are irreplaceable treasures! After so long apart, it is so encouraging to see our young parishioners thrive.

Graduating Seniors from both high school and college are invited to bring or send a photo and a short bio of themselves, including where they graduated from and what they are hoping to do next. At all the Masses for Sunday, June 26th

(including the Saturday vigil Masses), these photos and bios will be displayed, and Fr. Adrian will give you a special blessing. After the 11am Mass, we will serve cake in your honor. Photos and bios can be mailed to the church at the attention of Simeon Willis, or texted to him at 828-585-4373.
