Faith Formation

June 11 is the Feast Day of our church's patron saint, Barnabas.

The apostle and missionary was among Christ's earliest followers and was responsible for welcoming St. Paul into the Church. Though not one of the 12 apostles chosen by the Lord, Jesus, he is traditionally regarded as one of the 72 disciples of Christ and most respected man in the first century Church after the Apostles themselves.

Holy spirit take hold

Holy spirit take hold all chaos quell
Send forth your spirit your fire indwell
Mid chaos and turmoil grant blessed peace
Sweet victory in the storm our praise never cease
You tell us Lord Jesus seek always your face
Open our eyes to your wisdom and grace
You speak through creation, in calm or in storm
Take hold holy spirit bring on the new morn
As morn turns to day our lives make a gift
Outpourings of love every soul now uplift
Be the hands and feet for god on this earth
Wherever we go take the breath of new birth
Incomprehensible grace god shows me and you
There's a song in his heart believe me it's true
Resist him no more our arms now lay down
Holy spirit take hold our future a crown
Resurrection and life new power we bring
With angels and saints our song let us sing
Earth speaks his glory as the birds in the sky
Jesus Christ wrote the story, never more shall we die.

EL PODER ACTIVO DEL ESPÍRITU

El misterio de la Trinidad se refiere a un Dios en tres personas. Con frecuencia reconocemos a Jesús como “la segunda persona de la Trinidad”, pero también referirse al Espíritu como una “persona” parece menos natural. En el arte religioso cristiano, el Espíritu Santo a menudo se le representa como una paloma, o como en la lectura de hoy de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, como lenguas de fuego. Son menos frecuentes las imágenes del Espíritu como una “persona” reconocible en forma humana. Las lecturas de hoy no resuelven el tema de cómo representar al Espíritu, pero ciertamente dan forma al poder activo del Espíritu en el mundo y en cada corazón humano. En los Hechos de los Apóstoles, el Espíritu hace posible que las personas hablen y entiendan diversas lenguas. La carta de Pablo a los corintios alaba al Espíritu por todo tipo de dones espirituales, servicios y “obras”. Por último, en el Evangelio de Juan, Jesús llama al Espíritu nuestro abogado y nuestro maestro divino.

THE SPIRIT'S ACTIVE POWER

The mystery of the Trinity refers to one God in three persons. We frequently acknowledge Jesus as “the second person of the Trinity,” but referring also to the Spirit as a “person” comes less naturally. In religious art, the Holy Spirit often appears as a dove or, as in today’s reading from the Acts of the Apostles, tongues of fire. Much rarer are images of the Spirit as a “person” in recognizable human form. Today’s readings do not settle the issue of how to picture the Spirit, but they certainly give shape to the Spirit’s active power in the world and in each human heart. In Acts, the Spirit enables people to speak and understand a variety of languages. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians praises the Spirit for all kinds of spiritual gifts, services, and “workings.” Finally, in John’s Gospel, Jesus calls the Spirit our Advocate and our divine teacher.
