TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The pilgrim experience of going by foot to Santiago de Compostella, the shrine of St. James, reached its high point this week at the feast of the Apostle, with tens of thousands of pilgrims on the road. Typically, they cover twelve to twenty miles a day through rough territory. The difficult journey and the often primitive lodging facilities are made bearable by the joy of the pilgrims, their songs and prayers. When their journey is documented properly, they receive the scallop shell, a reminder not only of James the fisherman, but also his call to fish for human beings and to baptize the nations. In the Middle Ages, those who wore this badge on their hats were granted lodging and hospitality wherever they went. Next to the palm, the sign of a Jerusalem pilgrim, the scallop shell was most highly prized.

In the Middle Ages, some people so enjoyed the pilgrim road, although it was filled with discomfort and danger, that they spent most of their lives on the road. Today, some people take up the route for exercise, but are drawn gradually into the spirituality of the journey. As you make your summer travels, always fold in an element of pilgrimage: a long walk through beautiful countryside, a visit to a church, a prayer of gratitude for your journey through life's hills and valleys.

Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for August, 2019

Evangelization:

That families, through their life of prayer and love, become ever more clearly “schools of true human growth”.

Pidiendo ayuda

Las beatitudes alaban al pobre de espíritu. Una de las características de quienes son pobres de espíritu es su habilidad para pedir ayuda; ellos saben cuando otros pueden proveerles lo que les hace falta. Las lecturas de hoy nos animan a practicar la pobreza de espíritu pidiéndole a Dios aquello que necesitamos. ¿Qué podría ser más natural pedir a Dios que buenas cosas? Dios es, después de todo, el hacedor de la bondad y el dador de buenas cosas.

Pidiendo ayuda a Dios nos pone en una conversación con Dios. Esta conversación o conversaciones pueden ser de muchas formas. La lectura del libro del Génesis muestra a Abraham negociando con Dios de una manera graciosa, pero como un hábil negociador; por otro lado la carta de san Pablo a los colosenses alaba a Dios respondiéndonos aún cuando no lo merecemos. En el Evangelio de san Lucas, Jesús no solo nos da las palabras y frases para usar en nuestras conversaciones con Dios (el Padre Nuestro), sino también promete que Dios siempre escuchará nuestras oraciones.

DSA: Our Status - no change...

While regular monthly pledges have been processed regularly (thank you!) new donations have leveled off and not been coming in for a few weeks. As you can see from below, we have not met our goal for the year, and as you also know any shortfall comes right out of our operating budget. There are so very many programs funded by the DSA that help our community, our brothers and sisters and ourselves, here at the parish level. Our parish has benefited directly from programs from Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte and the Elder Ministry, to name a couple of examples. Please use the pledge card you received in the mail or simply go online (see link below) to make a contribution today!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society has contacted Habitat for Humanity to request a representative to come to our parish for an information session on applying for a Habitat home. St. Barnabas has provided 'sweat' labor for many Habitat homes, as we volunteer each year (see separate article about helping this year). Given the price of rent in our area, we thought there would be many families that would be interested in home ownership at very affordable prices. Habitat offers 2-4 bedroom homes in safe communities, ideal for raising children. Currently Habitat is building in the Candler area. Both homes and townhomes are available.

The information session would explain the steps you would need to take toward ownership. Habitat offers no interest, no down payment loans with affordable mortgage payments. If you apply and are not accepted, they will send a letter stating the reasons, and offer you the option of re-applying at a future time if you have resolved the issues leading to non-acceptance. There is no limit on the numbers of times you can apply.

We are looking at several dates on which this approximately one hour information session might happen:

Saturdays: August 10, 17, or 31. September 7 or 14. There is a sign-up sheet in the social hall. If you wish to come, please list your name and put a check mark in any/all of the days you WOULD be available. We will then compile the list and schedule the Saturday (morning, probably), that the most people can attend.

Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl

Nuestra Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl se ha contactado con Hábitat para la Humanidad para solicitar que un representante venga a nuestra parroquia para una sesión informativa sobre cómo solicitar una vivienda de Hábitat. San Bernabé ha proporcionado mano de obra 'sudor' para muchas casas de Habitat, ya que cada año prestamos servicios voluntarios (vea el artículo separado sobre cómo ayudar este año). Dado el precio del alquiler en nuestra área, pensamos que habría muchas familias que estarían interesadas en ser propietarios de viviendas a precios muy asequibles. Habitat ofrece casas de 2 a 4 habitaciones en comunidades seguras, ideales para criar niños. Actualmente Habitat se está construyendo en el área de Candler. Ambas casas y casas adosadas están disponibles.

La sesión de información explicaría los pasos que debe seguir para ser propietario. Habitat no ofrece intereses, ni pagos de anticipos con pagos hipotecarios asequibles. Si presenta la solicitud y no es aceptado, le enviarán una carta en la que se explicarán los motivos y le ofrecerán la opción de volver a presentar

Each month we will update you with the items to concentrate on donating in the food barrels. This will help us ensure a nutritious variety and adequate stocking levels for the Food Pantry boxes.

For July, please donate:

Canned Fruit
Flour
Sugar
Laundry Detergent

su solicitud en el futuro si resolvió los problemas que conducen a la no aceptación. No hay límite en el número de veces que puede aplicar.

Estamos viendo varias fechas en las que esta sesión de información de aproximadamente una hora podría ocurrir:

Sábados: 10, 17 o 31 de Agosto. 7 o 14 de Septiembre. Hay una hoja de inscripción en el salón social. Si desea venir, indique su nombre y marque uno o todos los días en que ESTARÁ disponible. Luego, compilaremos la lista y programaremos el sábado (mañana, probablemente), al que la mayoría de las personas puede asistir.

Pro-Life Answers to False Pro-Choice Arguments (Part VIII)

"Abortion is necessary because there are already thousands of children waiting to be adopted".

The chances of a newborn baby not being adopted are extremely small, regardless of race or circumstances. The problem in adoption is not babies, but older children (many of whom are not legally adoptable) who come into the adoption system long after their birth.

When the abortion industry tries to justify aborting children by saying there are children who are not getting adopted, they are talking about two separate and unrelated groups of children. The interesting thing is that the children they want to abort are the ones who are the easiest to place for adoption and therefore, not part of the problem.

The pro-choice position is, "We have a group of children over here (older and already born children) who are difficult to place for adoption, so let's kill this other group over here (unborn babies) who are extremely easy to place." This argument is plainly absurd and indefensible!

How is a 14 year old girl who needs a loving home helped by killing an unborn baby? Aborting a totally unrelated group of children who are not hard to place will not help her a bit. Pro-aborts often counter that if the people who want to adopt babies could not do so, they might adopt these older children already in the system.

It would be hard to imagine a more repugnant form of extortion that this argument. What they are really saying is, "In order to make adoptive parents take the older children we think they should adopt, we will slaughter the babies they want to adopt". Few statements speak better to their moral bankruptcy than that one! ☐

Connecting with everyday life: Many Catholics express difficulty in knowing how to pray. Most can relate to the disciples who asked Jesus to teach them how to pray. Today, invite your people to turn to God with an open and prayerful spirit. You might lead them in a brief guided reflection, or invite them to set aside time for prayer each day in the coming week. Perhaps share this quote from C.S. Lewis with them: "I pray because I'm helpless. I pray because the need flows out of me all the time, waking and sleeping. It doesn't change God. It changes me."

Respuestas Pro-Vida a falsos argumentos Pro-Elección (parte VIII)

"El aborto es necesario porque ya hay miles de niños en espera de ser adoptados".

Por Las probabilidades de que un recién nacido no sea adoptado son extremadamente pequeñas. El problema de la adopción no son los bebés; sino los niños mayores (algunos de los cuales no son adoptables por cuestiones legales) que llegan al Sistema de adopción mucho tiempo después de su nacimiento.

Cuando la industria del aborto intenta justificar el abortar niños al decir que ya hay niños que no están siendo adoptados; se está hablando de 2 grupos de niños distintos y no relacionados entre sí. Lo interesante es que los niños a los que se quiere abortar, son a los que es mas sencillo colocar en adopción; y por lo tanto, no forman parte del problema.

La posición pro-elección es: "Tenemos un grupo de niños por aquí, (ya nacidos y mayores) a quienes es difícil colocar para adopción; entonces matémos a este otro grupo por acá (los no nacidos) que son extremadamente fáciles de colocar para adopción". Este argumento es simplemente absurdo e indefensible.

¿Cómo es que una niña de 14 años que necesita un hogar amoroso, es ayudada por medio de matar a un bebé aún no nacido? Abortar a un grupo de niños, totalmente no relacionado que no son difíciles de colocar en una familia, no le ayudará en lo mas mínimo.

Promotores del aborto a menudo responden que si la gente que quiere adoptar bebés, no puede hacerlo, podrían adoptar a los niños mayores que ya están en el sistema.

Es difícil imaginar una forma de extorsión mas repugnante que ésta. Lo que realmente están diciendo es: "Con el fin de hacer que los futuros padres adoptivos tomen a los niños mayores que creemos que deben adoptar, deshagámonos de los bebés que si quieren adoptar".

¡Pocas declaraciones describen mejor su bancarrota moral que esa! ☐

Conectando con la vida diaria: Muchos católicos expresan dificultad para saber cómo orar. La mayoría puede relacionarse con los discípulos que le pidieron a Jesús les enseñara a orar. Hoy, inviten a sus feligreses a volverse a Dios con un espíritu abierto y de oración. Pueden guiarles en una breve reflexión guiada, o invitarles a guardar tiempo para orar cada día durante la próxima semana. Quizá puedan compartir con ellos esta cita de C.S. Lewis: "Rezo porque no puedo hacer nada más. Rezo porque la necesidad fluye fuera de mí todo el tiempo, despierto y dormido. No cambia a Dios. Me cambia a mí".

Sacred Music: What Is It and Why Do We Care?

There is no more divisive component of any church than the style of worship that is offered and fostered within the liturgy. There are no more places of misunderstanding and openness to opinion than sacred art and music. Within these two facets lies the potential to alter one's grasp and experience of the sacred mysteries of Holy Mass.

The very word sacred holds the implication of being set above the secular which is temporal or profane. Sacred music exists purposely for use within the Church and her liturgies, and as with all things Church there is an authority that helps us to define, and therefore use as a guide, what we should sing.

Both Popes St. John Paul II and Benedict XVI urged the reform of sacred music in the liturgy because it is not only one of our oldest treasures, it also helps us to transcend past the secular into the heavenly realm. Why does sacred music need reforming? Here are some common statements every music director hears:

- I like upbeat music and need Mass to lift me up.
Music and emotion go hand in hand. However, we cannot use emotion as criterion for what is sacred. If this were the case, my opinion would be just as valid as anyone else's. It also takes us away from what is truly important: the text.

- I prefer contemporary songs and hymns because it is what we know.
Contemporary music is truly a good thing and both S. JP II and BXVI encouraged the writing of contemporary music suitable for the liturgy. However, what is often meant by this term "contemporary" is music composed from 1970-1985 or so. Because these compositions are rooted in secularity they are truly "temporary," as they appeal only to a particular group of a particular age and do not stand the test of time. The ancient hymns and chants live on, somewhat because of style, but mostly because of the text.

- What do the words matter, I like the sound and style.
Singing at Mass comes from the ancient tradition of singing the Psalms and other biblical texts. The Sacred has become infiltrated with secular texts, so much that the average person cannot tell the difference anymore. One example that comes to mind is the song: "The Lord of the Dance." This hymn has no biblical basis and is heresy. Because the tune is catchy and people like it, our brains shut down and accept it as Sacred. Secular means "outside the temple" and certainly this song and many other popular ditties should remain so.

Holy Mass is a prayer from beginning to end. The goal for Sacred Music, or anything at Mass should never be "me" but always a focus on God as we work to conform our lives to Him. The Mass is our foretaste of the Heavenly Liturgy; let us give our absolute best to God! Sacred Music is no exception!
