Saint Gregory the Great (540-604)

September 3

Imagine, fourteen hundred years after death, boasting a best-selling CD! Yet outside the Church and within, Gregorian chant is enjoying a renaissance. Still, the timeless sacred music that bears his name is but part of Gregory's legacy. Renouncing civic service for monastic life, Gregory's administrative and diplomatic skills prompted continual summons from the cloister. Papal ambassador and advisor, he was eventually elected pope himself, renowned as a wise steward of the church's material possessions, generous benefactor of the poor, sponsor of missionaries, and promotor of monasticism. His liturgical enrichment of the Church endures not only in Gregorian chant, but in eloquent homilies still gracing the Liturgy of the Hours, the "Gregorian Canon" (Eucharistic Prayer I), and his spiritual classic, Pastoral Care, once presented to new bishops at ordination. Of countless impressive papal titles—Supreme Pontiff, Vicar of Christ, Successor of Saint Peter, Prince of the Apostles—the title still so cherished that it heads official documents is the one Gregory coined to describe his papal ideal: Servant of the Servants of God. Together with being designated "the Great," a fitting epitaph.

San Gregorio Magno (540-604)

3 de septiembre

Gregorio nació en Roma, donde posteriormente cursó estudios de Derecho, llegando a ser Prefecto de la ciudad a los 34 años. No obstante su éxito, a la muerte de su padre, se dedicó a la construcción de conventos, haciendo de su casa uno de ellos. Abraza la vida de monasterio y a los 35 años es ordenado diácono y enviado como representante papal a la actual Turquía. Volvió a Roma como secretario del Papa Plagio II, y a su muerte, fue escogido unánimemente por el clero como el obispo de Roma. Como tal, dio firmeza al papado independizándolo del Emperador, siendo el primer monje en llegar al papado, tenía un gran amor por la liturgia y decretó que se recopilaran los himnos antiguos de la cristiandad, llevando a cabo una reforma litúrgica y creando un Misal nuevo que combinaba varios ritos. Gracias a él se renovó el canto en la liturgia y en su honor, se le llamó canto gregoriano. Se le da el calificativo de Magno o Grande por la influencia de su papado así como de sus escritos.

How We Can Communicate During Coronavirus

Our Website: Critical or time-sensitive notices will appear in a yellow box near the top of the page. Here you will find notices of future Confession opportunities, live-streamed Masses, and other important news.

You can also go to the About Menu >> Staff Directory to reach any staff member by email via contact form.

Email: We have sent out two “mass” emails so far to relay information on live-streamed Masses. Many remain unopened, but we seem to be reaching about half of you. If you have a change in your email address email it to secretary@saintbarnabasarden.org. If you do not want to receive such emails please let us know or “unsubscribe” from the link in the email you receive.

Facebook: We have two options for facebook. Our GROUP page, which is private, for registered parishioners only. This is so we can post parishioner news or pictures without it being open to the public. If you are a facebook member, we urge you to request access to the group which you can do here:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/stbarnabasarden/>

◆ Our Public Page, which is open to anyone, even if you don't have a facebook account. You will need a direct link to access it if you do not have a facebook account, and be prepared for pop-up requests to join facebook. This is where the live-streamed Masses are, so that anyone can view. You can access the public page here:
<https://www.saintbarnabasarden.org/fb-public>

Office Hours: Our normal office hours resumed June 8, and you are welcome to call at any time and leave a message. Please note that the front door will be locked at all times, but you can use the buzzer system on the outside wall to buzz Wanda if you come during open office hours:

Our Parish Directory: Yes, the directory is a bit dated, but we encourage you to pick it up and reach out to each other during this time!

Mail: If you are sending in your Offertory donation please send to: PO Box 39, Arden, NC 28704.

Monthly Themes for the Year of St. Joseph

The monthly themes for the Year of St. Joseph are taken from St. Joseph's virtues and titles as prayed in the Litany of St. Joseph (see below).

September – Joseph Most Prudent

October – Terror of Demons

November – Patron of Dying and Solace of the Afflicted

December – Chaste Guardian of Virgins and Pillar of Families

September - Joseph Most Prudent

Prudence is the mother of virtues which depends upon the practical wisdom gained by experience matched with an agile mind to make decisions in the here and now. Each time Joseph knew the will of God he acted decisively, swiftly, and accurately. He acted neither rashly nor timidly, but prudently.
