Advent Is Here! As part of taking a pause to revisit where we are with God and prepare more intentionally for His coming in our lives at Christmas, please consider the following traditions and activities:

For all ages:

- Join an Advent group in a parishioner’s home. We have several families who have graciously agreed to host a weekly reflection group. They will be held at various times and places to better accommodate everyone who would like to participate. If you are interested, please email or text Simeon Willis your location and day/time preferences: dre@saintbarnabasarden.org, 828-585-4373 and we will pair you with the best fit. If you would like to host, please also let us know. Watch the parish Facebook page for details this week!
- Sing Advent hymns, or play them at home! We as a society have lost the spirit of Advent and it is so essential to understanding and being ready for Jesus at Christmas. Some of my favorites: O Come Divine Messiah, On Jordan’s Bank, Come My Way, My Truth, My Life.
- Re-evaluate your prayer life and commit to regular or better prayer.
- Consider keeping Christmas simple and focused. Stuff does not buy happiness.

28 de Noviembre de 2021

Todos somos mayordomos, administradores de los muchos dones que Dios nos ha otorgado. Nuestro desafío como cristianos es hacer un buen uso de esos dones.

For families:

- Join Holy Heroes Advent Adventure for the daily Jesse Tree tradition: <https://holyheroes.com/pages/advent-adventure> Ages 5-12.
- Discuss St. Nicholas instead of Santa Claus. Put your shoes out in front of the door or fireplace on December 5th, the evening before his feast. Put some candy or a small gift in the shoes.
- From Norway, Finland and Sweden, St. Lucy’s feast day is celebrated (December 13) by having the oldest daughter wake up early to make breakfast for the family, and by putting lights/candles in the windows. (Lucy means “light”)

March for Life: Washington DC., January 20-22

If you would like to participate this crucial year, consider taking the bus with us! This is a beautiful trip, full of life and friendship! See details and sign up in the social hall or contact Simeon Willis: 828-684-6098 x1303, text 828-585-4373, or email dre@saintbarnabasarden.org.

If you would like to buy a bus seat for someone else, they are $75 a seat. Thank you!
