AUDACITY

There is a spirit of audacity in our readings today. During a time of injustice and threat of invasion, the prophet Micah boldly announces that the God of insignificant Israel will raise up a leader from backwater Bethlehem, and this leader will bring justice and peace to the whole world. In the Gospel, Elizabeth and Mary, marginalized women, brazenly celebrate that their sons will be world-changing instruments of God. We further learn that this audacity is rooted in trust in God. The author of Hebrews describes the faithful obedience of Jesus. Mary is shown as the exemplar of faithful trust in God. This is the way God often seems to work, in the ordinary and marginalized in our world. Those who seem weak have learned to trust in God's strength. These have the audacity to become instruments of God's peace and justice.

Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

Father's reaction to the quilt

Approximately 200 people joined in the festivities last Sunday to celebrate Father Adrian's birthday and his twenty year Ordination Anniversary.

It wasn't easy, but we managed to keep his special Star Wars themed quilt (made by our own St. Barnabas parishioners) a surprise until The Great Reveal.

Many thanks to the staff, parishioners, and volunteers who have been working for some time on this celebration, and a special thanks to Bob and Marge Riffle who not only prepared food for this event, but had a funeral luncheon the day before. We are very blessed to have them in our parish.

We offer hope and prayers for Father Adrian in his next twenty (and beyond) years as a pastor.
